Information sur le projet

Titre:	Circus Trans Formation
Code Projet:	2012-1-BE2-LEO05-02674 (L12T0002)
Année:	2012
Type de Projet:	Projets de transfert d'innovation
Statut:	Clôturé
Pays:	BE-Belgique
Accroche marketing:	Social circus is an innovative tool for the education and social inclusion of children, young people and adults with fewer opportunities. The consortium gathers 8 youth and social circus schools. Six of them have developed a VET offer as part of their activities, and two others are still in the process of developing VET programmes. They are joined by CARAVAN (the European network they have founded together), the Université catholique de Louvain (in charge of the methodology) and 1 associated partner, the University of Paris-Sud 11 (working on the evaluation). At the end of the project, partners will establish the curriculum and the teacher's guide for a European training programme for social circus trainers, ready to be implemented and organised at national and European level. This will have an impact on the national and European VET systems of this branch and will also contribute to the dynamics and the economic growth of the social circus sector all over Europe.

Titre: Circus Trans Formation : A Guidebook for Social Circus

Type de Produit: Matériel d'apprentissage

Texte marketing:

Description: This Guidebook for social circus trainers is aimed at providing the social circus sector with a 20-day training programme for social circus trainers.It is the result of 2 major European projects submitted under the Life Long Learning Programme of the European Commission and led by Caravan along with its members and in partnership with the Université Libre de Bruxelles and University catholique de Louvain.

The 1st European project took place from 2009 to 2011 under the Leonardo Da Vinci - Partnership programme. This 2-year research in the field of social circus developed a proper bottom-up methodology based on field analyses, which enabled to bring up the specific competences a social circus trainer needs to acquire. It resulted to the creation of the framework of competences for social circus trainers and the definition of social circus.

Based on the results of the Partnership project,the aim is to create the first 20-day European training programme for social circus trainers. Respecting a tight schedule and supervised by a pedagogical team of experts led by the Professor Emeritus Léopold Paquay (UCL), this TOI project is a great success! It has been prepared, tested and evaluated in 8 European countries.

The Guidebook for social circus trainers is more specifically the outcome of this second European project “Circus Trans Formation”.
