TRANSFERRED PROJECTS

The project is based on the LdV projects "Exemplo" and "Third Age Guidance".

TARGET GROUP

Guidance workers and practitioners

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- To improve professional performance of guidance workers by introducing coaching method and assessment tools with focus on informally acquired competences.
- To develop a training with diversity sensitive modules for coaching of clients (focus on target groups at risk of social exclusion) and to test the training.

AFTER THE TRAINING PROGRAMME THE GUIDANCE PRACTITIONERS WILL BE ABLE:

- to empower guidance seekers (focus on target groups at risk of social exclusion) to make changes in their professional lives and education,
- to help poorly qualified and low-skilled adults to return to education through accreditation of prior and experiential learning,
- to enhance the employability of clients as described above.

ACTIVITIES AND RESULTS

- Analysis of needs of the guidance workers
- Curriculum of training of lifelong guidance practitioners and training material in all languages of the partner countries (DE, EN, FR, IT, EL, CZ, LT).
- Piloting of training in all partners countries and adaptation of the innovative content to the national VET systems
- Networking with decision makers in each country
- Certification of the training as additional module for career guidance practitioners
- Integration of training into regular training programmes in each country
- Networking with CEDEFOP virtual guidance community and other umbrella initiative and associations as IAEVAG, FEDORA - possible transfer of the project outcomes to more European countries.
