Résumé:	Project developed a model framework of competences which can be transferred from a classroom situation or training in the workplace to Small Medium Enterprises """"test"""""
Description:	Seven partners worked together to analyse current practice in training mobile workers and migrants. It then developed a best practice framework, a guidance tool, which specifically addresses the training needs and barriers to learning of mobile workers and/or migrants. The project developed a model framework of competences which could be transferred from a classroom situation or training in the workplace to Small Medium Enterprises.
