Information sur le projet

Titre:	PAWS, projet de formation professionnelle sur les forêts méditerranéennes
Code Projet:	DE/09/LLP-LdV/TOI/147 245
Année:	2009
Type de Projet:	Projets de transfert d'innovation
Statut:	Clôturé
Pays:	DE-Allemagne
Accroche marketing:	Pour répondre aux attentes des pays méditerranéens, le projet Leonardo PAWS, qui visait à élaborer une formation destinée à des travailleurs forestiers, a donné lieu à un autre projet de transfert de formation innovante (toujours dans le cadre de Leonardo), PAWSMED. Ce nouveau projet a été adaptée spécifiquement aux besoins des pays méditerranéens et a intègrès des partenaires en provenance d'Italie, de Slovénie, d'Espagne, du Portugal, de Grèce, d'Autriche et d'Allemagne. Globalement, le programme PAWS sera accessible dans dix langues, et a été mise en œuvre dans onze pays de l'Union européenne
Résumé:	Dans le contexte de la mondialisation et d'une importance croissante des forêts il ya un besoin de plus en plus fort d'une bonne compréhension des dimensions multiples des forêts et la foresterie. La pédagogie des forêts ou «Waldpädagogik" est donc un domaine prioritaire pour l'élaboration d'une compréhension commune des forêts et leur rôle pour aider à résoudre les énormes défis que nous rencontrons actuellement. Cependant, la plupart des forestiers des pays méditerranéens, n'ont pas ou peu de formation dans le domaine pédagogique. Par conséquent, les produits de la PAWS ancien projet Leonardo seront transférés et adaptés aux besoins des pays méditerranéens. En outre, les multiplicateurs et les forestiers seront formés à l'utilisation de la notion PAWS ensemble. Pour cet objectif, les partenaires de l'Italie, la Slovénie, Espagne, Portugal, Grèce, Chypre, l'Autriche et l'Allemagne travaillent dans le projet
Description:	During the running time of the project we had different work items such as: a) Development of additional material for Mediterranean countries. Topics like illegal fires, desertification and climate change should be written and included in the already existing material of the former project b) Integration/translation: The mentioned topics, additions and comment were included and all the material translated into IT, GR, ES, PT, SL, EN, DE • The materials are including the following products: Course framework The course framework is the foundation / base for the whole PAWS-MED concept. It is a guide for trainers who want to teach forest paedagogy The workbook is designed to give background information in particular regarding paedagogical issues which might be important to know before dealing with the public and before creating a tour for special target groups through the forest creating a tour curriculum (seminar concept) The curriculum (seminar concept) gives detailed information about the structure of the course (training for foresters) and the chronological sequence. The tour planner is a tool which enables foresters to plan a tour related to a certain target group (e.g. preschool, adults, seniors, people with special needs), time of the day, time schedule, season, landscape, messages to be brought across. manual - PAWS MED The manual goes with the tourplanner and describes on how to proceed and to use the tourplanner. It has been translated and relevant screenshots have been made

c) Training and implementation: After the translation disseminators / so called multipliers coming from Italy, Slovenia, Spain, Portugal, Cyprus and Greece were trained in the use and implementation of the PAWS/PAWS-MED concept. The training took place in Austria, Gmunden and was led by the Austrian partner, who is very experienced in the topic "Waldpädagogik". Afterwards the multipliers were training foresters in the PAWS/PAWS-MED concept in their own countries and the trained foresters were organising tours for different groups e.g. preschool children, seniors, people with special needs. During the running time of the project 15 multipliers and 141 foresters were trained in the use of the PAWS/PAWS-MED concept.
Sustainability:
For the year 2012 all med. Partners are planning additional trainings, not only for foresters, but some want also to include teachers and even journalists. But new trainings are not the only activities. E.g. the Cypriot partner is in contact with the Ministry of Education for preparing a training program for teachers and planning to join the FCN subgroup Forest pedagogy for the development of a common European FP-strategy. And due to the success of PAWS-MED Slovenia will establish a core group of forest pedagogues.
During our very successful final conference held in Sabaudia. further interest in the PAWS-MED concept and training was e.g. coming from Libanon and Argentina. First discussion regarding this matter were held with the group Silvia mediterranea
All in all we had 6 Partnermeeting.
