Summary:	In co-operation with the federal department of the Chamber of Trade and Commerce and the local Training Centre for bricklayers (Lehrbauhof Salzburg) the Landesberufsschule Wals (Vocational School for Building Trades in the province of Salzburg) organised a European Leonardo-da-Vinci Mobility project for apprentices. Some six trainees from different companies (bricklayers,carpenters, stonemasons, floor tilers) participated in this 3-week lasting work placement in Southwest-England. Our partner in England, South Devon College (The Training Partnership Ltd) in Torquay, Devon, had choosen the English companies and arranged accommodation for the trainees. The participants got work experience with different companies according to their job on construction sites in and around Birmingham/Midlands. They also took part on training courses in the college.
