Projektinformationen

Titel:	INTEPA: Übertragung und Anpassung der neuen Ausbildungsprogramme für die Qualifikation in Natur- und Kulturinterpretation
Projektnummer:	2010-1-ES1-LEO05-21053
Jahr:	2010
Projekttyp:	Innovationstransfer
Status:	abgeschlossen
Land:	ES-Spanien
Marketing Text:	Das INTEPA Projekt ist ein Leonardo da Vinci Innovationstransfer Projekt, das im Rahmen des Programms Lebenslanges Lernen entwickelt wurde und dessen Gesamtdaur 18 Monate beträgt. Es beschäftigt sich mit der Übertragung der Ergebnisse eines früheren Projektes, IN-NATURE: „Natur- und Landschaftsführer im ländlichen Raum: ein innovatives Training“.

Zusammenfassung:

Purpose of the Project:
The project, included in the “Develop Vocational Skills considering the labour market needs – New skills for New Jobs”, priority, proposed the transfer of the IN-NATURE project results, a pilot project with proven quality, adapting this transfer to the needs of other countries regarding the professional improvement and the creation of new employment opportunities within the sector of environmental and cultural tourism.
The interpretation in natural and cultural heritage is an important support for its conservation. Technician in interpretation can arise visitors’ interest in heritage, and develop an attitude of appreciation and guardianship to those resources.
The competition in the field of Heritage Interpretation will give target users the qualification to offer quality, attractive and effective tourism services, and manage the conservation of local heritage.

The main goals and objectives have been:
1. To improve the quality of training adapting the manual developed in the pilot project.
2. To provide new content focusing on land management for its conservation.
3. To add innovations in the field of Heritage Interpretation.
4. To promote equal opportunities.
5. To adapt content to curriculum design, culture, needs and requirements of the targeted users.

Beschreibung:

Characteristics of the consortium:
The partners have proven experience in educational projects. It is ensured a fully trained team to support the development of the project.
Overview of tangible and intangible results obtained:
1. Adaptation and updating of the Didactic Guide "The Interpretation of Nature and the Rural Environment", using ICT and adapting it to the needs of each country. It has been translated into all languages of the partners and into English.
2. Design a web platform and a blog for every member, in the languages of the partners and in English.
3. Elaboration of the Study to identify the training needs in the field if Heritage Interpretation in the action area of each partner. These studies have been translated into all the partner languages and into English.
4. Elaboration of 7 Dossiers of sites with a Heritage interest and employment resources related, in each action area of the project partners.
5. Organisation of a pilot course in every participating country to verify that the transfer is valid and is adapted to the characteristics of the target groups in each country.
6. Dissemination of the project through the project leaflets and informative articles that have been available in all the partner languages and in English.
