The GOA-WorkBench®

ACES
Accreditation and Certification within the Educational Sector

The project uses the GOA-WorkBench® which is a suite of software products (or modules) that are designed to support educational institutions and organisations, large and small, improve their business performance.

The GOA-WorkBench® is designed to:

- Help staff to identify key drivers to educational/business performance
- Gain staff opinion through self assessment of the organisation's current position
- Assist management in development and monitoring of key actions for improvement
- Identify gaps in workforce planning to improve training to meet environmental needs
- Strategically develop the organisation's approach to quality
- Enable management to fine tune business strategy to identify and close any gaps

*THE ACCREDITATION AND CERTIFICATION WITHIN THE EDUCATIONAL SECTOR

The GOA-WorkBench® is available across various languages and is a truly European product as it is able to match the requirements for educational institutions, organisations and public authorities within Europe.

The suite of products within GOA-WorkBench® is able to output reports showing management where the organisation measures against:

- ISO 10015 – Quality Management for Training
- ISO 9000 Series - Quality Management System
- Education Scotland Quality Framework
- EQARF and CQAF

A further benefit of the GOA-WorkBench® is it assists an organisation to complete self assessment using the EFQM Excellence Model. The organisation is able to use the software in GOA-WorkBench® without having to train staff to use the model and gain :

- Understanding of their key strengths
- Further improvement to sustain superior results
