Final conference QAFP

October 3, 2014
Grand Palais, Lille, France

The EU Leonardo da Vinci project Quality Assurance Foreign Placement proudly invites you to her final conference and present its project results to you. In the last two years the partners from Turkey, France, Germany, Belgium and The Netherlands created a sustainable network of Local Agents to increase the quality of placements abroad.

Learn how you can benefit the results and become involved in the growth of the network.

The final conference is held in close cooperation with the EuroSkills 2014 Competition and this gives you the opportunity to visit the conference in the morning and the competition in the afternoon. An outstanding possibility to meet a wide range of people involved in Vocational Education and Training or Industry.

A detailed conference program will be send to you in a few weeks time. Do block your agenda now and meet us in Lille!

The fourth work meeting of QAFP was held in June in Antalya- TR. Local potential workplace companies and potential Local Agents were invited to share ideas and possibilities. Further more the project partners worked towards finalising the project results and the preparation of the final seminar in November 2014.

QAFP Quality Logo

QAFP has created the Work Based Learning-logo to visually underline the quality of companies that meet the standards for offering high quality internships or work placements. Companies can apply for the use of the logo
