Information sur le projet

Titre:	Questions d'apparence - l'optimisation des résultats pour les services d'orientation et de formation professionnelles
Code Projet:	527463-LLP-1-2012-1-UK-LEONARDO-LMP
Année:	2012
Type de Projet:	Développement d'innovation
Statut:	Clôturé
Pays:	EU-Projets centralisés
Accroche marketing:	Insatisfaction apparence est une composante principale et prédicteur de l'estime de soi abaissée, la détresse émotionnelle, les comportements néfastes pour la santé et mauvais résultats scolaires et peuvent contribuer involontairement à l'exclusion sociale et la discrimination. Si les fournisseurs de services ont une compréhension limitée et de l'expérience à ce sujet et comment elle influe sur l'individu, ils ne parviendront pas à atteindre des résultats optimaux et involontairement créer un obstacles pour ces personnes touchées, ce qui conduira à davantage d'exclusion sociale.
Résumé:	Une personne sur cinq ont une défiguration et pour beaucoup, cette «différence» a un impact négatif estime de soi et le fonctionnement social. Eux et beaucoup d'autres qui n'ont pas (à ses propres yeux, ou dans la vue des autres) sont conformes aux normes de la société ou des idéaux de l'apparence, peuvent éprouver de la détresse, de la stigmatisation et de la discrimination. Les gens qui sont en difficulté sur leur apparence peut être affecté de plusieurs façons. Dans les études à grande échelle, l'insatisfaction apparence a été cité comme composant principal et un prédicteur de l'estime de soi abaissée, la détresse émotionnelle, les comportements néfastes pour la santé et mauvais résultats scolaires et peuvent involontairement contribuer à l'exclusion sociale et la discrimination. Si les fournisseurs de services ont une compréhension limitée et de l'expérience à ce sujet et comment elle influe sur l'individu, ils ne parviendront pas à atteindre des résultats optimaux et involontairement créer une barrière qui mène à l'exclusion sociale supplémentaire.
Description:	Les objectifs du projet sont de développer la formation, soutenue par une large gamme de matériaux, de nouvelle ou existante conseillers d'orientation professionnelle et de formateurs professionnels afin de leur permettre de comprendre et de reconnaître les causes et les conséquences de la défiguration et / ou de l'insatisfaction à l'apparence de leurs clients et de la stigmatisation et / ou à la discrimination que subissent ces personnes. T L'objectif principal est que la formation suivante, les participants seront en mesure de reconnaître que les clients qui présentent des handicaps évidents en termes de sexe, âge, origine ethnique peut également être négative affectée par leur défiguration et / ou d'insatisfaction apparition en combinaison avec la stigmatisation et les obstacles sociétaux. Les participants comprendront comment ce groupe est plus à risque d'exclusion dans notre société européenne. Un client avec une défiguration et / ou d'insatisfaction apparence peuvent avoir une mauvaise santé psychologique, ce qui aura une influence négative sur leur engagement dans la société ainsi que leur qualité de vie. Ils peuvent aussi avoir été victimes de discrimination et de stigmatisation qui a en outre une incidence sur leur bien-être psychologique et pourrait générer impuissance par rapport à leur situation actuelle. Cela peut signifier que le client est très difficile de conseiller et de soutenir en devenant auto-activé. Il est primordial que les formateurs et les conseillers d'orientation apprendre à reconnaître les symptômes de détresse et sont en mesure d'offrir à leurs clients des techniques appropriées de devenir auto-activation et de prendre des décisions appropriées concernant l'apprentissage de carrière professionnelle et d'emploi. Les praticiens apprennent également à reconnaître l'importance de développer des réseaux de professionnels de différents domaines qui peuvent rencontrer les personnes avec une défiguration et / ou d'insatisfaction apparence, afin de partager l'expertise plus large. D'autres objectifs sont d'assurer la durabilité par la diffusion des documents de

Produit 'Appearance Matters - Synthesis Reports'

Titre:	Appearance Matters - Synthesis Reports
Type de Produit:	Matériel pour l'enseignement
Texte marketing:	A report to show similarities and perhaps differences between the countries of the partnership in relation to the issues of the issues of disfigurement and dissatisfaction with appearance and the vocational training and guidance.
Description:	This synthesis report is based upon the national reports from Austria, Italy, Lithuania, Norway and Sweden. The national reports contain information about their educational and vocational training system, current unemployment rates, how health care is provided in the country together with specific appearance related questions. The partners addressed these appearance questions via desktop research, asking their participants by using questionnaires and their own thoughts about how appearance influences their practice and the work of vocational trainers and/or guidance counsellors. This synthesis report focuses mainly upon the appearance related questions, but each national report can be downloaded on the web site: www.appearancetraining.com .
Cible:	The target audience would be vocational guidance counsellors, guidance networks, umbrella organisations, NGO's, training providers and other relevant stakeholders.
Résultat:
Domaine d'application:	A training resource that would be used to learn about the European vocational training and guidance counselling perspective about disfigurement and dissatisfaction with appearance and it's implications.
