Type of Meeting: Dissemination Workshop for the leaders of Community Centers of Kaunas Region

Date: 8 October, 2013

Place: Kulatuva, Lithuania

The dissemination event of the DLQ project took place on 8th of October 2013 in Kulautuva, Lithuania, where the project was introduced to leaders of Community Centers of Kaunas Region. 20 people from Community Centers off surrounding suburbs of Kaunas including the members of Local Action Group gathered at the event.

The event was organised and the participants were gathererd by Kulautuva's Youth Center, the organisation established by Kulautuva's Community Center specifically dealing with activity and orginising and educational project developing for various youth groups of the suburb of Kulautuva.

Project manager Laura Pekiene presented the DLQ project, the overall aims of the project as well as the specific skill developing techniques that were already being carried out by the youth participating in the project. Laura Pekiene delivered the standard DLQ presentation explaining the essence of the project to the participants, as well as presented the Embedded and Enquiry-Based Learning Key Competence Curriculum.

All participants agreed that both the project idea and the aims of the project were very interesting and they would be interested in taking part in similar projects and would find young people wanting to and in need to participate in engaging activities.

Positive feedback was received from all participants and "Idėjų centras" received many questions about the overall implementation of the DLQ.
