

Individual observation sheet

Name of the beneficiary:

Age:

Sex:

Location:

Observation period:

Name of the observer:

The observer will complete in the following table scores on the present or absence of behaviors expressed during the execution of tests using the Likert scale. Thus, it will be completed on a scale from 1 to 5 the level of expression of the person evaluated in the table. It will be used the following qualitative scale:

- 1 – manifestation non-existent;
- 2 – manifestation sometimes present;
- 3 – manifestation often present;
- 4 – showing manifestation;
- 5 – manifestation always present.

To observe:		Behavior	Evaluation scale
			1	2	3	4	5
Symptomatic stable
1. constitutional type	Presentable, elegant
2. Outfit	Caring
	Extravagance negligence
Symptomatic labile
1. body position	hands	Relaxed at the sides
		Takes hands to mouth
		Relaxed on the table
	feet	Sits cross-legged
		Moves "nervously" the right leg
	trunk	Leaned forward
		Crooked position
2. facial expression	eyes	Visual contact permanent
		Visual contact absent
	mouth	Wet lips
		No significant

		movement
	Facial muscles	Tense
		Relaxed
	Facial color	Changes often in red
3. verbal expression
	speech	Coherent, linear
		Shy, trembling
	discourse	Cursive, clear
		Interrupt, unclear
	Logic of ideas	Clear
		Incoherent
4. non-verbal expression
	Hit the floor with the sole
	Raise the eyebrows
5. skills and qualities
	Logic thinking	Evoke data, events, persons, places; reply organized to complex subjects; give logical answers, consistent, to the point, reflects several seconds before answering questions; asks questions tinting.
	Creative thinking	Talks about solutions for problems
		Talks about conflicts, difficulties, misunderstandings and ways of solving them
	Clear expression, accurate and fluency in expressing ideas	Responds accurately to questions

		Accentuates the main ideas
		Formulates complex sentences
		Finishes the idea started
		Ideas have continuity
		Uses elevated vocabulary
		Adaptability at the educational and social level of the person with whom communicates
	Evidence of maturity	Strong personal beliefs
		Differentiation capacity of desires
		Wants to be sure that he understands the question before answering
		Is not lost in details
	Realistic motivation and ambitious	Motivated to do something
		Long-term vision
		Realistic aspiration
		Knows the capacities
		Wants to overcome the current condition
		Wants to enrichment
		Wants to evolve professionally and socially
		Is devoted
	Optimism without naivety and positive tone	Thought and positive attitude without loss of

		sense of reality
		Demonstrates self-confidence through gestures, words, comporment
	Independence	Prefers a job in which one can assume responsibility and make its own decisions
	Persuasion and argumentation	Convincing in what one says
		Denotes safety and clarity in arguments
		Pleasant presence, sociable
		Open to discussion
	Loyalty and dignity	Direct, honest, reliable
		Proof of seriousness, one can rely on him/her					